

Constitution

Preamble

CodeBlue is a non-profit organization at the University of Michigan dedicated to the awareness and continued research of prostate cancer. Through various service events and fundraisers, we strive to augment public understanding and support for those afflicted with the second most prevalent cancer among males.

ARTICLE I – Name

I. The name of this organization shall henceforth be known as CodeBlue.

ARTICLE II – Purpose

I. CodeBlue aims to spread the awareness of prostate cancer through engaging social, athletic, and educational events.

II. CodeBlue intends to utilize said events to raise funds, which shall be donated to the Prostate Cancer Foundation (PCF) at the conclusion of each semester.

ARTICLE III – Membership

I. CodeBlue openly admits students to its membership and does not discriminate upon the basis of race, color, national origin, age, marital status, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, disability, religion, height, weight, or veteran status in employment, educational programs and activities, and admissions.

II. Membership will be constricted to current University of Michigan students or faculty. Said students must be partaking in undergraduate or graduate studies.

III. All members are required to attend a minimum of 2 service events, as well as a preliminary fee of five(5) dollars.

IV. If a member fails to attend the required service events, they face review by the executive board. A simple majority of the Board of Executives constitutes termination.

ARTICLE IV - Executive Officers

I. President- Shall consistently inform members of the state of the organization. Shall preside over all meetings. Shall represent the organization at large. Shall provide signature authentication of community service hours accrued through event participation.

II. Vice President-Shall provide the main connect between the President and the Board of Executives. Shall assist the President in all managerial duties. Shall fill the President's role in his or her absence. Shall provide signature authentication of community service hours accrued through event participation.

III. Treasurer- Shall handle all funds and finances for the organization. Shall manage the organization's bank account. Shall collect dues from new members. Shall head the process of donating funds to the Prostate Cancer Foundation (PCF).

IV. Secretary- Shall keep record of all meetings and keep record of all members' attendance. Shall provide signature authentication of community service hours accrued through event participation.

V. Web Designer/Manager- Shall create and maintain the website promoting CodeBlue and its vision. Shall communicate with the Public Relations Coordinator to produce novel and appealing material.

VI. Public Relations Coordinator- Shall create and maintain all social media outlets (Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, etc.). Shall communicate with current and prospective members regarding events and volunteering opportunities.

VII. Event Coordinator- Shall head the generation and organization of all events. Shall work with President and Vice President to efficiently run each event.

ARTICLE V - Board of Executives

I. The Board of Executives consists of the seven(7) officers previously described.

II. Board members are expected to attend all meetings. Board members are also expected to attend all events except one(1), depending on the number of events held each semester. Discretion is left to the Board of Executives concerning the appropriate number of permissible absences.

III. Board Membership can be achieved following the termination, graduation, or resignation of an existing Board of Executives member.

IV. Board of Executive members are also subject to termination following a unanimous vote by the residing six(6) members of the Board of Executives.

ARTICLE VI – Finances

I. CodeBlue plans to finance the organization through annual membership dues and sign-up fees.

II. CodeBlue collects all funds earned by the events and will donate the earnings to the Prostate Cancer Foundation (PCF).

ARTICLE VII – Amendments

I. Any active member may suggest an amendment to the current CodeBlue constitution.

II. All constitutional amendments must pass the Board of Executives with the approval of five(5) of the seven(7) members.

